Voting Member Fees

To be considered a member in good standing and be able to vote on bylaws or in our elections, you need to have paid dues by May 1st, 2024.

Once we receive this form we can invoice your First Nation Social Assistance Office. If fees are not paid by May 1st, access to the website will be turned off and other member benefits will cease.

Communities that pay past the deadline can still be members but without voting rights.

Based on caseload size (please check one):

1 - 50	$ 1400
51 - 99	$ 1700
100 - 149	$ 2200
150 - 250	$ 2700
251+	$ 3200

Non-Voting Member Fees

Individual Non-Voting Member

This includes retired members, honorary members, and past individuals who contributed, provided and were resources and support to the Corporation.

Individual Non-Voting Member $ 300

First Nation Group

To be considered a "group", the First Nations must deliver income assistance as a collective and be recognized as a "group" by the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services (MCCSS).
